

Game-Script License Agreement

On behalf of Dedicated Gaming Network, LLC, we would like to thank you for your recent purchase of unique, high-quality turnkey templates from <http://www.Game-Script.net>. We hope you are as pleased with your purchase as we are to bring it to you. All materials available as part of your Game-Script membership are copyrighted works of authorship to Game-Script.net and its parent company Dedicated Gaming Network, LLC exclusively and are also protected under applicable database laws. Game-Script.net and Dedicated Gaming Network, LLC retains ownership of all items available with the <http://www.Game-Script.net> membership and any copies of it, regardless of the form in which the copies may exist. This license is not a sale of the original Game-Script.net materials or any copies.

By accessing any Game-Script.net materials, you agree to the following terms and conditions outlined throughout this agreement, detailed on <http://www.Game-Script.net>, and any and all terms and conditions as may be updated by Game-Script.net and Dedicated Gaming Network, LLC from time to time. Such agreement is either on your own behalf or on behalf of any corporate entity which employs you or which you represent. All terms of this agreement are applicable to you, and any reader of this agreement, and any corporate entity which employs you or which you represent.

The Game-Script.net license attached to your purchase grants you the right to use materials accessed from the Game-Script.net collection for personal, corporate, and commercial use, subject to the following limitations and terms and conditions:

- 1. Personal Use – The Game-Script.net license grants you the right to use materials accessed from <http://www.Game-Script.net> for personal use on websites owned by the purchaser of the account directly with little to no modifications. REQUIREMENT: Users of these materials must retain the copyright notification and link to <http://www.GameScript.com> that included with each and every programmed template.
- 2. Corporate Use - The Game-Script.net license grants you the right to use materials accessed from <http://www.Game-Script.net> on a corporate website/entity owned by the purchaser of the account directly with little to no modifications. REQUIREMENT: Users of these materials must retain the copyright notification and link to <http://www.Game-Script.com> that included with each and every programmed template.
- 3. Client Use – The Game-Script.net license grants you the right to use the materials accessed from <http://www.Game-Script.net> for clients, friends and family, or various corporate entities upon significant modifications of the materials accessed from Game-Script.net. If you intend on using any of the graphics that you download from Game-Script.net as products you wish to sell to clients, then you must make significant modifications to the materials. Our materials are intended to be used as a starting point for your developed sites, so there must be some significant modification beyond pure content/text/picture changes. What this means exactly, is that you must modify the color, shape, or look of the template, such that upon an initial glance, it is not obvious that the template was accessed from Game-Script.net. If you are unable to so, or do not wish to perform these modifications, then it is still possible to use our templates for your clients, family or friends, or a corporate entity, however you will need to purchase a new license for each individual or entity that you develop a site for. You can find client pricing at the below URL: <http://www.Game-Script.net/Order> When you purchase a license for a client, all customers must submit the receipt of this license purchase to admin@Game-Script.net along with your username, the name of your client, and the URL where the licensed material will be used. Thereafter, the required license purchase will be noted with your account. The additional benefits this license provides, is that once you purchase it for your client, you may then provide that particular client with as many designs as they may need with little or no modification. However these items may NOT be distributed or displayed through any form of archive or automated shopping or download system, and must be custom modified for each client. Additionally, each employee or agent of any commercial or corporate entity must have their own separate license to use the materials accessed from Game-Script.net. REQUIREMENT: Users of these materials must retain the copyright notification and link to <http://www.Game-Script.net> that included with each and every programmed template.

4. Restriction: This license does not afford you the right to redistribute and/or resell any of the items listed above for any purpose. Redistribution and reselling restrictions include, but are not limited to: attempting to resell any product you purchase or acquire through your membership at <http://www.Game-Script.net>, simply giving away any of the merchandise you purchase (i.e. your friends will have to purchase their own graphics), making on textual or photo changes and then attempting to resell or redistribute these graphics, or any other method of simply providing the exact same merchandise you purchased to others. Additionally, our products may by no means be displayed in any catalog or archive format. In other words, you may NOT present our graphics, scripts, or identity packages in a form that would lead others to believe it is your own, or to serve as a starting point for clients to select the product they would like you to customize, nor may it be displayed in a portfolio which is intended to be representative of your work. The reason these items cannot be displayed under these conditions is because this action would violate the aforementioned limitation that requires you to significantly alter the layout and actual design of our graphics before they can be displayed or resold in this fashion, or, if this you do not modify the graphics this way, you must purchase a license for each client.
